

Water Polo Saskatchewan Referee

Name: Dakken Bedore

Age: 21

Hometown: Weyburn

Dakken has been involved with the water polo community and WPS for the last 11-12 years as an athlete and has been helping as a referee for the last 4 years. He was studying an Aboriginal Policing Preparation Program in college, and took 1 year of University at U of R taking Human Justice. Dakken is currently now working at Regina Police Service as a 9-1-1 operator. Water polo has given Dakken a lot of great experiences his favorite water polo moment was travelling as a team to California and playing against US.

Dakken keeps busy with his hobbies that still keep him involved in polo he loves to play masters and reffing water polo, and on his remaining free time working on vehicles.

Dakken wants you try out polo! Why?

You should try water polo because there are so many opportunities to take advantage of such as NCAA, potential scholarship opportunities, and of course swimming is such a great life skill and you will make lifetime friends while you play. The water polo community is like a second family.

Dakken's tip!

For young athletes; Always keep an open mind, work hard in practice, and have fun. These are some of the best memories you will make in your life

