

Water polo athletes at tournament

Water polo athletes from Weyburn competed in the Sask. Open Water Polo Tournament held in Regina at the Lawson Centre on Nov. 12 to 14.

The girls' cadet team (ages 14-16) finished in second place, losing to one of Calgary's teams in the final match. They had beaten the other Calgary team, the Edmonton Thunderbirds, Estevan, and Winnipeg Bushido in the semi-final to get to the gold medal game. The team consists of the following players: Callahan Huebner, Hailey Walkeden, Karly Moser, Kristen Smart, Taylor Molde, Rylee Molde, Jenna Hauptstein, Kelsey Jensen, and Emma Guest.

Callahan Huebner, Taylor Molde, Jenna Hauptstein, Kelsey Jensen and Emma Guest also played on the Regina open women's team that finished in second place, beating Regina, but losing to Calgary.

Dakken Bedore played as a member of the Regina cadet team that finished in third place. Dakken also played with Russell Lenferna on the open men's team that lost to Regina in the final match.

Blues win gold at Rouleau tourney

Members of the Weyburn AM1190 Blues hockey team gather after winning gold at the Rouleau Riverdogs tournament on Nov. 20. Two highlights of the tournament included a shutout by goalie Owen Peterson and player Matthew Anderson named as the tournament's Most Valuable Player. In the back row, from left are coach Todd Lawrence, Camryn Sutherland, coach Bob Peterson, Kade Sirounis and coach Greg Gerry. In the middle row, from left are Baron Lawrence, Owen Hiltz, Lincoln Alexander, Matthew Anderson, Ethan Domes, Brayden Gerry and Mason Muxlow. In the front row, from left are Ethan Orsted, Kolton Fleck-Zepick and Owen Peterson.

Photo 2863 - Courtesy of Deana Peterson

Water polo players at Sask. Open tournament

Photo 2861 courtesy Kelly Glaspey

Weyburn water polo athletes from the girls Cadet team gather with their medals after competing at the Sask. Open Water Polo Tournament in Regina, held on Nov. 12-14. The group includes, from left, coach Monique Huebner, Hailey Walkeden, Rylee Molde, Callahan Huebner, Karly Moser, Taylor Molde, Kristen Smart, Kelsey Jensen, Jenna Hauptstein and Emma Guest.

Show your appreciation with
Corporate Gifts

Promotional products can be used to increase your presence in the community and introduce a new product or service.

The most popular are insulated travel mugs and elegant pens but you can choose electronic clocks, pocket knives, calculators...the items are many and varied.

904 East Avenue
842-7487

Review
WEYBURN